

Out of Warranty Pick-up & Return Repair

No warranty? Don't worry!
We'll keep your product running.

If you're experiencing problems with your product which are not covered by your current warranty terms, such as liquid spills, accidental damage or mechanical faults or if the original warranty of your product already expired, don't worry!

With dynabook's special Out of Warranty Repair Services you don't need to waste your time finding a reliable and skilled repair centre, or worry about high repair costs. We take care of your product in the same way as we do for in-warranty repairs: with high quality support at a fixed price that includes parts, labour and logistics.
